Totally True Twelveth Issue

Dear Santa,

It has come to my attention that the liberal media is spreading some "FAKE NEWS" about me involving a bag of cookies and some ice cream bars that may place me on the naughty list this year. I would like to address these issues with you, so I will repost some of my tweets to show you how good I have been this last year.

Scored big on trip to Quebec. 16 roles of paper towels and 24 rolls of toilet paper. FREE!!! Only had to endure 2 hour tour of paper recycling plant in French. Why can't everyone speak English?

So as you can see Santa, I have been nothing but a good boy this year and deserve everything I have coming to me.

Let's make X-Mas great again!
